STAT

I have your letter of 30 July and greatly appreciate your writing to me as you did. It is indeed gratifying to get your kind comments, particularly at this time.

It would be a pleasure to see you again and hope that we can get together for a little chat before very long.

Clover joins me in extending best regards to you and [redacted]

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

I am sure that you know that your old friends are unhappy about the current political attack on you and the CIA. This just a note to wish you every success in this battle, which must be a great additional burden to you above and beyond the call of daily duty.

One of these days, I do hope that we can get together. Best to you both, in which [redacted] joins me.

Sincerely yours,

DR/lpk
